MIMOSAS TOUR

10 &amp; 11 february

2 days / 30 km

REQUIRED LEVEL

ROUTE

On Saturday morning, you will make a head to head start under the D37 bridge, then wander on the blue waters of Saint-Cassien's lake. You will then go straight up north passing the buoy and aim at the southern buoy before going back to the club. On Sunday morning you're off again for a 15 kilometers long guided tour with a group composed of five boats, to visit hidden creeks inaccessible by foot. Wild landscape guaranteed! Beside rowers, around 150 nesting bird species were identified on the site.

SIGHTSEEING

First, you should know that anywhere but in Saint-Cassien it is still winter this time of year. This would be your very first opportunity to row under a bright sunshine. Each tour comes with a typical Provençal meal which will help you regain your strength. You can also choose to visit a blooming forest of mimosas which scents and fragrances will intoxicate you. The sea is not very far since Saint-Raphaël and Cannes are only a few cable-lengths away. You can therefore finish your stay enjoying the Cote d'Azur while rowing along Saint-Cassien.
