

«LA RANDONNAISE»

 JUNE 15 & 16
2 DAYS / 42 KM

 ROWING LEVEL

ROUTE

You will start from “Redon sur la Vilaine” then enter the canal between Nantes and Brest, through the harbor lock, then reach Gacilly sur l’Aff, a lovely little river with shady meanders. You will have a lunch break in the city so as to enjoy the local craftsmanship and the largest outdoor photo festival in France, in partnership with Yves Rocher. In the afternoon you’ll go back towards Redon on the canal, going through the wild site of “magpie island”, where schist and granite mix to provide a wonderful landscape, famous for its 15 km long gap which provides a perfect climbing spot. Then you will go back to Redon by the Nantes-Brest canal. On the next day you may follow a 12km long route on the Vilaine. Lunch takes place in a local “guinguette” by the water.

SIGHTSEEING

Located on the confluence of many rivers and of the Nantes-Brest canal, Redon use to have an important economical part to play in the exchange of salt and materials. However fluvial trade gave way to sailing and nautical activities.

You may enjoy varied visits such as the artisanal village in Gacilly with the Yves Rocher vegetarian, or the harbor with its salt stores and the inland water shipping museum in Redon. This sporty yet relaxed tour has no major difficulty and will enable you to discover both the Vilaine and the Nantes-Brest canal on the Oust and the Aff through a fine stroll in inland Brittany !
