

MONTEYNARD TOUR

 JULY 05
1 DAY / 28 KM

 ROWING LEVEL

ROUTE

This tour is located at the foot of the Vercors Mountains and 35 km away from Grenoble, between the Sénépy and the Vercors mountains, and will take you to discover amazing landscapes. You will discover granite cliffs overhanging emerald waters but also tiny hidden coves inviting you to idleness, and pass underneath the Himalayan footbridge, unique in Europe. You will start on Mayres Savel nautical base and go down on the right bank until reaching Sinard village, then enter the gorge until Monteynard cirque, before turning around towards Treffort village. You will go up on Ebron estuary, marked by the first footbridge, then continue along the forest lined coasts to reach the footbridge across the DRAC. Those savage and beautiful landscape will enrhrall you until the Mayres Savel nautical base.

SIGHTSEEING

This tour can be accomplished by river or on hiking paths, which makes it the perfect family gateway, since it meets everyone's desires, including basking in the sun watching boats pass by. Visits are also possible: the mine museum in La Mure, the meeting meadow in Laffrey, Vizille castle which was the cradle of the French revolution, the meeting prairie on the Napoléon road in Laffrey...
