2 DAYS / 25 KM

ROWING LEVEL

ROUTE

This weekend in Camargue is composed of two different activities : you will spend the first day on the canals and the second one discovering sea rowing. The tour starts in the heart of the typical fishing port of Grau du Roi. You will then go back up the famous « Vidourle » and you may watch the Camargue horses and many species of birds amidst these natural wild landscapes. You will continue your tour on the Rhône canal in Sète then will take the « small canal » bordered with stone pines before reaching Aigues-Mortes. The tour will end on then Aigues-Mortes canal where you will navigate along the « Salins du Midi », with its salt mountains (« camelles ») before reaching the harbor in Grau du Roi.

SIGHTSEEING

This tour will make you believe in the notion of persistent summer because at this time of year, winter is clearly for other people. You will glide cautiously on these beautiful places born from the encounter of the Great Rhône river which drowns elegantly in the Mediterranean Sea. Along the way you will discover Camargue, and a great many of its famous sites: the fortified city, Aigues-Mortes canal, the salt marshes, the canal from Rhône to Sète, and the picturesque harbor of Grau du Roi, the salt mountains and the greatest marina in Europe.
