ROUTE

Don't miss out on the opportunity to discover the hidden side of the most famous French river!

At the gates of Ile de France and at the feet of Champagne vineyards, the Seine river unwinds her twists and turns among meadows and poplar groves. Far from the city bustle, you may enjoy the wild nature lively with bird singings and luxuriant flora... However, the river is full of surprises and you must remain vigilant whenever the current gets stronger or the riverbed narrows. You will stop for a bucolic and gastronomic break halfway before heading towards Nogent sur Seine, going through ancient typical villages. The tour will end with a barbecue during which rowers will enjoy sharing the tales of their adventures on the Seine.

SIGHTSEEING

The tour takes place on the upstream from Nogent sur Seine's river port which is the last merchant stop. Along the way you will cross two typical villages: first Pont-sur-Seine with its harbor and flat-bottomed boats, then Marnay-sur-Seine and its 17th century priory. Upon arrival you will discover the ASSoT mill, which stands as an architectural industrial masterpiece dating from the early 20th century (1908). Its bell tower is considered worthy of the "industry castles".
