ROUTE

You will start your tour in the center of Nantes, a city with 3 rowing clubs since it gathers the optimum conditions for the practice of this sport. The landscape is an urban one yet nature has been well preserved. Over the kilometers houses and beautiful buildings gradually disappear and give way to meadows, castles and manors, known as the « folies de l'Erdre ». From a 40 m wide river you will then enter the Mazerolles plains, where riverbanks are 300 or 400 m apart. On the very last kilometers the Erdre River will finally shrink back to being just a few dozen meters wide! You have reached Nort-sur-Erdre and its charming little port. All along this tour you may have the opportunity to admire herons or other species of migratory birds. It is no accident that François Premier had claimed the Erdre River to be « the most beautiful river in France ».

SIGHTSEEING

This tour on the Erdre River enables the participants to enjoy the wonderful variety of landscapes. The river is bewitchingly calm and the numerous castles bordering it add a very romantic touch to this tour. You will share your impressions of the tour and your rowing adventures during a friendly picnic on the Erde river banks. On the way back you can choose to switch teams between the several rowing clubs. As peaceful and exotic as it may be, this tour still represents a tiring effort since you will travel more than 45 kilometers during the day. It is of course possible for rowers to switch in order to row only halfway. There's also a wooden tow since last year. Thanks to Olivier, its creator, you may discover the Erdre effortlessly! This tour will be above all else a pleasant, relaxing and friendly change in scenery !
