ROUTE

You will depart from the club and head downstream along the two islands « Ile du pont » then around the « Ile au boeufs ». You will navigate along the hotel Dieu, Saint Martin church and the city quays, then turn around and navigate on a large Saône arm, which was used for transportation before the construction of the great canal and is now free from commercial traffic. You will pass by two other islands, the « Ile Boilleau », then the « Ile Fourmi » and discover the castles of Pouilly and Auvillars, before arriving at the heart of a charming village by the ancient lock: Lechatelet. You will then turn back towards the nautical center to gather on the river bank for drinks and a meal composed of local specialties from the beach restaurant.
